

ELENA BANDÍN FUERTES

ORCID

Google Scholar

Dialnet

Research group: TRACE

Research projects: Shakespeare en España, TRACE, HISTRA,

CV summary:

Elena Bandín is lecturer at the University of León, Spain. She has done extensive research on the reception of Shakespeare's works in Spain with a particular interest in translation, performance and censorship. She is a member of TRACE \(translation and censorship\) and researcher of the international research project 'Shakespeare's Works in European Culture' coordinated by the University of Murcia. She has published articles in national and international journals such as SEDERI Yearbook, Cognitive Linguistics or Critical Survey and chapters in volumes such as Shakespeare and Tyranny: Regimes of Reading in Europe and Beyond (Cambridge Scholars, 2014) and Romeo and Juliet in European Culture (John Benjamins, 2017). She is currently co-editing the volume Othello in European Culture (John Benjamins).

Keywords: DTS (Descriptive Translation Studies), TRACE (Translation and Censorship), Shakespeare in Spanish and European Culture

Resumen del CV:

Profesora Contratada Doctora del área de Filología Inglesa de la Universidad de León (España). Ha trabajado en la recepción de las obras de Shakespeare en España con especial atención a su traducción, representación y censura. Es miembro del grupo de investigación TRACE \(translation and censorship\) e investigadora del proyecto internacional "La recepción de las obras de Shakespeare en la cultura española y europea" de la Universidad de Murcia. Ha publicado artículos en revistas tales como SEDERI Yearbook, Cognitive Linguistics o Critical Survey y en volúmenes académicos como Shakespeare and Tyranny: Regimes of Reading in Europe and Beyond (Cambridge Scholars, 2014) y Romeo and Juliet in European Culture (John Benjamins, 2017). En la actualidad está coeditando Othello in European Culture (John Benjamins).

Palabras clave: EDT (Estudios Descriptivos de Traducción), TRACE (Traducción y Censura), Shakespeare en la cultura española y europea